Matters Arising	County Councillor Emlyn Dole – To date, the Clerk has not received a response from the Council Leader to the letter sent in January. A response was received from Julie James, Minister for Local Government at the Welsh Government to the letter highlighting the lack of response from the County Council to the needs of the community. The response stated that monies given to County Councils has no designated spending restrictions attached therefore if highway matters are not addressed, it is a County matter. Reducing Community Council Meetings to four per annum – This proposal will have to be discussed at the May Annual General Meeting. County Councillor Irfon Jones stated that Highways had assured him that Grit Boxes had been replenished and potholes repaired.
